These are the same practice tips from last month, but we felt it important to repeat it. Everyone enjoys things they are good at and the only way to get good is practice!

ANNUAL RECITAL THURSDAY JUNE 5, 2008

We are planning on hosting our annual recital on Thursday, June 5th at 6:30pm. Location is still to be finalized, but our first desire is Union County High School as it is centrally located. All groups will be performing as well as select individuals. There will also be a special performance and awards. Admission will be free so please circle the date on the calendar and invite all of your friends and family.
